

DAVIS GENEALOGY CLUB
JUNE PROGRAM

FAMILY HISTORIAN
SUSAN H. JACKMAN

Using Maps in Your Family History Research

Maps are just as vital to our family history research as they are in our everyday lives. Maps that show land ownership or industrial sites of historical significance like saw mills or mines can tell us much about our family history.

Learn how to find and use many kinds of maps and see for yourself how much they can help you to literally “find” your ancestors.

Please join us for this informative presentation.
