

DAVIS GENEALOGY CLUB

APRIL 2010 PROGRAM

Courthouse Research

Glenda Gardner Lloyd

The day-to-day joys and hardships of your ancestors' lives can often be found documented among the numerous original records of the local court. Come learn how to access these valuable records to enhance your own family history.

The courthouse is the motherlode of the history of our families' activities. It is the repository for land, court, probate and other historical records that document the lives of our ancestors. A little advance planning will make your visit most successful.

Glenda Gardner Lloyd helped organize Root Cellar, Sacramento Genealogical Society and served as its first president. She has taught genealogy classes through San Juan Adult Education for the past 25 years and does workshops for many local societies. Genealogy is her hobby and her passion, which she will share with all of us!

DAVIS GENEALOGY CLUB MEETINGS AND THE CLUB LIBRARY ARE OPEN TO THE PUBLIC.
