GETTING ORGANIZED: FROM PILES TO FILES

Speaker: Glenda Gardner Lloyd

Eventually, every genealogist must face the fact that organizing those growing piles of documents is a must. Glenda Gardner Lloyd will demonstrate her methods of organizing records, photographs, and other papers so that they are safe and the information readily available. Her insights and tips promise to be both practical and valuable for all of us who are, at times, "overwhelmed with paper".

Glenda Gardner Lloyd is a fourth generation Californian. She grew up on a cattle ranch in northeastern California and attended a one-room country school. She taught elementary school and worked as a reading specialist for thirty-eight years. Glenda helped organize and served as the first president of Root Cellar, Sacramento Genealogical Society. She has taught genealogy classes through San Juan Adult Education for many years. She teaches at seminars and workshops both locally and nationally. Genealogy is Glenda's hobby and her passion, which she hopes to share with all of you.
